LATIN 4
YEARLONG COURSE
2021-2022

Instructor: Mrs. Danae Edsall

Class Dates: Tuesday, September 7, 2021 - Thursday, May 27, 2022

Weekly Meetings: Tuesday and Thursday 1:00-2:15pm EST

E-mail: dmedsall.scholeacademy@gmail.com

ELIGIBLE STUDENT:

Grades 10-12; advanced 9th graders welcome.

This course offers instruction in Latin grammar and reading, building on the foundation laid in Latin 1, 2, and 3. This course is designed for students who have successfully completed Scholé Academy's Latin 3 course, the Latin Alive! Book 3 text, or an equivalent course of study. In this course, students will complete Latin Alive! Reader, studying at a deliberate pace that aims at mastery and delight. Students translate the writings of Latin authors from the Roman Republic all the way down to Sir Isaac Newton, while continuing their study of the history and culture of those who wrote. Students build on their previous Latin grammar and vocabulary and will begin to take ownership of identifying areas of strength and weakness.

Please note: This course is the equivalent of one high school credit in foreign language.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Latin 4 offers a diverse set of readings through which the students will review what they already know of Latin grammar and syntax. The goal is to learn to read Latin with facility and to get a sense of the variety of genres in which Latin was employed.

Lessons will be supplemented with readings and historical studies which put the language into its ancient context. Parents are encouraged to look through the textbook to get a sense of the variety of auxiliary activities, some of which will be utilized during classes and homework assignments.

Homework will consist of written translations, practice questions, and review for tests.

Students will also be encouraged to build their own timeline, based on the historical figures and events we encounter along the way. By the end of the year they should have developed their own chronological overview.

We plan to read six classical authors (Cicero, Caesar, Phaedrus, Catullus, Vergil, and Ovid), while leaving the remaining readings up to the choice of the students. There is no way to cover all the readings in the book, but we are excited with the unique opportunity students have to participate in choosing the authors they want to read. The class is designed so that students will be able to transition smoothly to AP Latin Preparation next year. Mastery of previously learned material is of utmost importance.

REQUIRED TEXTS:*

Latin Alive! Reader: Latin Literature from Cicero to Newton (Student Edition)

* Required texts are not included in the purchase of the course.

STUDENT EXPECTATIONS: EXECUTIVE FUNCTION SKILLS

Students enrolling in Scholé Academy's Latin Program will be expected to show development of Executive Function Skills throughout the year. Executive Function Skills speaks to a set of qualities and skill sets students can develop and hone the better to approach the courses, lectures, readings, and teachers they will encounter in their future academic coursework.

Since we are learning a language together and will be using Latin to answer questions and engage in simple dialogue, it is of utmost importance that students come to class with a courageous willingness to make attempts without worrying about making mistakes. In this spirit, the classroom will be an environment of respectful, joyful, and friendly learning, which will facilitate the study of a difficult language.

This disposition is that of an 'engaged student'. Scholé Academy commends four other important skills which ought to be observed by students.

1. An Engaged Student: One who is willing to step into the arena of class discussion, ask questions, supply answers, and consider how the discussion at hand applies to oneself.

2. Note Taking: A student must be engaged with the class by taking notes on important and relevant content in an organized fashion. They should then independently consult those notes for assignments and in preparation for assessments. It is essential that all students acquire a notebook for use during the class, as this will keep them organized by subject.
3. Attention to Detail & Preparedness: These students are ones who consistently adhere to deadlines, submission requirements, adhere to style guides and codes, confirm technology is working prior to the start of class, are responsible to determine how to proceed after an absence, and responsibly consult their course syllabus, adjusting as the class proceeds, etc.
4. Critical Reflection: These students are ones who receive feedback to their submissions and then apply that feedback to future assignments rather than repeating mistakes. These students also glean information from the live class critiques of fellow students and learn from others what mistakes to avoid.
5. Initiative/Maturity: This student will be proactive in listening to the teacher's comments, assessing how they apply to his/her work, taking the initiative to schedule office hours with the teacher if necessary.

STUDENT EXPECTATIONS IN ACTION

Students will be following a sequence of study contained in Latin Alive! Reader. The primary goal for the student will be to gain facility reading authentic Latin texts from various periods. They will also continue to build their knowledge of ancient Roman culture and history. The greater goal is that students develop an appreciation of the beauty and power of language. This appreciation will inform their other studies and their lives in the world.

Some student work and assessments will be completed in the textbook through regular classroom participation. Students will need to be developing the independent ability to approach a reading and decide what notes to take as they prepare translations for the teacher and ready themselves for tests. Readings are from the textbook and supplementary exercises designed by the department may be provided. Students will also be encouraged to use some online tools.

During class time, students will review answers, pose questions, and explain and justify their translations and interpretations. Each week the teacher will lead discussions informed by issues and problems raised by students, as well as issues introduced by the teacher.

In this class, students will be expected to listen attentively and participate actively in class discussions and practices. This includes active use of Latin when reading aloud, relaying answers, and engaging in simple teacher-led conversation. Students are expected to arrive to class on time with all assigned material completed. The instructor will facilitate learning for the student, but the responsibility for staying up-to-date with classwork and assignments is ultimately the responsibility of the student.

Students who have not attached their homework to the appropriate Schoology assignment prior to the start of class will not be permitted to join the live class session. Those students will be invited into a separate Zoom breakout room to work privately until they have completed the day's assignment. After they have completed their homework submission, they will be permitted to rejoin the class in session. A day spent in a breakout room will constitute an absence from class.

All assignments will be due prior to the start of class each day, attached to the appropriate Schoology Assignment. Students turning in late work will not be able to receive full credit. Students will submit their work by scanning their homework pages and uploading it into the Schoology assignment window as one PDF document. Photographs of completed assignments will not be accepted as they are incredibly difficult to read.

STUDENT GRADING AND EVALUATION

While pursuing Latin 4 through Scholé Academy will be “restful” and enjoyable, we also recognize the need to provide grades for students who will be using this course as part of their prepared college transcript. It’s a delicate balance to achieve both restful learning and excellent academic performance. Earning a specific grade should not overshadow achievement goals for mastery of this discipline. Grammar (for our purposes, the Latin language in all its dimensions), like the studies of Logic and Rhetoric, is a “core” discipline in Classical Education and learning to own the concepts introduced in this class will be a necessary and significant component of future success in upper-level Classical Education. In that sense then, attaining a mastery of Latin is its own reward, though the teacher will assign the following grades to your student’s level of achievement: magna cum laude (with great praise); cum laude (with praise); satis (sufficient, satisfactory) and non satis (not sufficient).

Ideally, every average student working diligently should do praiseworthy work (cum laude). Those who excel beyond this expectation will receive magna cum laude for their work. Student work that shows adequate mastery will be designated satis. Non satis designates work that demonstrates insufficient mastery; a student with consistently non satis work will not be recommended for continuation to the next level of Latin.

Additionally, we will provide a transcript with a traditional percentage grade to the requesting parent at quarterly intervals. All students will receive both a Scholé evaluation and a percentage grade at the end of the year.

STUDENT EVALUATION : MASTERY PORTRAIT

In this course students will receive the foundations of linguistic training that will set them on the path to full mastery of the Latin language. A knowledge of Latin will also lead to a more sophisticated understanding of English grammar, syntax, and style. This course will provide the components necessary to achieve mastery of the foundations of the Latin language, and help students develop an analytical mind. Speaking Latin and learning about the cultural context of the language we study will also help engage the student in development of their moral virtues. The following two aspects of the course comprise the learning target:

1. At the completion of this course cum laude students will:
 - Know by heart all basic grammar learned in Latin 1-3.
 - Be able to approach an unseen text with confidence.
 - Be able to translate previously seen passages with accuracy.

2. Students will also be guided in development of the virtues of Truth, Goodness, and Wisdom. The ancients believed that the arts of speaking and acting well were interconnected. This course intends for students to encounter something of the beauty and power of the logos, as they engage with the Latin language in its fullness, that is, as it is written, spoken, and heard.

STUDENT EVALUATION: ASSIGNMENTS, TYPES & WEIGHTS

Mrs. Edsall will communicate with students regarding assignment feedback and grading through the free online grading system, Schoology. The teacher will provide students with more detailed information and access to the Latin 4 course page.

Students' grades will have the following weight (out of 80):

1. Class Participation: 5
2. Homework assignments: 15
3. Regular Quizzing: 25
4. Regular Testing: 35

The incremental nature of the assessments is in place to ensure that students are continually reviewing previous material.

Typically Speaking:

- magna cum laude is the grade range of 94% or above.
- cum laude is the grade range of 85-93%
- satis is the grade range of 75-84%
- non satis is any grade lower than a 75%

This reflects the student's mastery and ability to move on to the next level. Nonetheless, if a student is unwilling to put the effort and energy into studying well and participating in class, they may not earn a magna cum laude (or perhaps even cum laude) even if their grade is high enough. Likewise, a student with a grade below 75% may get a cum laude on their virtue formation because of their work ethic. Students will not be recommended to proceed to the AP Preparation class unless they are in the cum laude or magna cum laude range.

STUDENT EVALUATION: ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Students will often take tests and/or quizzes privately at home. Students are on their honor to abide by Scholé Academy's Learning Philosophy which assumes the personal cultivation of Student-Virtues described in the Student-Parent Handbook. We ask that parents proctor quizzes and tests to help keep their children accountable.

Specifically, cheating and plagiarism are punishable offenses. Copying the work of other students is prohibited and proper citation of all sources is essential.

THE VIRTUAL CLASSROOM:

We will be using the free online “virtual classroom” software provided by Zoom, one of the leading companies that provides such software. The virtual classroom will provide students with interactive audio, text chat, and an interactive whiteboard in which texts, diagrams, video, and other media can be displayed and analyzed. We will provide students with a link in Schoology and via email that will enable students to join the virtual classroom. Specific information regarding the technology used by Scholé Academy (including required technology) can be found by visiting the Technology in the Classroom section of the Student Parent Handbook.

Students will submit all homework and assessments as documents by scanning and uploading them to their personal computer and then attaching those files as .pdfs to the appropriate assignment on Schoology found on the Latin 4 Schoology assignment page (access granted after enrollment is secured).

ABOUT THE INSTRUCTOR:

Danae McGregor Edsall holds a B.A. in Classical Liberal Arts with an emphasis in Literature and Latin from Patrick Henry College in Purcellville, VA. Danae’s own background in the public, home, and private school traditions has provided her with a unique perspective on the intricacies of each system. She has taught in a variety of education models, including private, homeschool co-op, classical, and subject-specific tutoring. Her teaching experience spans nearly all levels of education from primary to secondary school. Danae finds her deepest joy in teaching the Humanities, including English, Composition, Logic, Literature, History, Poetry, and Latin. Most recently, she taught Latin for five years and served one year as the Foreign Language Department Chair at a private school in northern Virginia, where she oversaw the administration of the Spanish, French, and Latin programs for the school. Danae believes that language plays a beautiful and powerful role in the pursuit of the true, the good, and the beautiful. Whether through reading well-known stories or writing a complex epigram, she is convinced that the study of language offers something for everyone to learn. In fact, it was the learning, studying and ultimately, teaching of Latin that solidified Danae’s desire to educate: docendo, discitur (by teaching, one learns).

Danae currently lives in the mountains of Blacksburg, VA where she enjoys an active and often adventurous lifestyle. She spends much of her time weight training at a local gym, biking around the New River Valley on both road and trail, hiking on the weekend with friends, cooking and baking with her husband, reading yet another book, or traveling to see family. Danae is thankful for the Lord’s providence in her life to infuse her multi-faceted background with greater purpose than she can see, and she is excited to partner with her brothers and sisters in growing Christ’s kingdom through education.
