Section 2: Tuesday & Thursday, 2:00-3:15 PM EST
Class Dates: Tuesday, September 6, 2022 - Thursday, May 25, 2023.

Instructor: Mrs. Annice Hoffman
E-mail: a.hoffman.scholeacademy@gmail.com

Eligible Students:

Grades: Grades 7–9; 10th–12th graders welcome. This course is designed as an introductory Spanish course; no prior Spanish instruction is required.

Spanish 1 Course Description:

Spanish 1 is designed to introduce students to the Spanish language, including grammar, vocabulary, and culture. It is the first step on the path to fluency. For the Classical learner, it is also an opportunity to see how one strand of Latin has developed and changed since antiquity, and to let Latin's most robust grandchild be your gateway to understanding the fascinating worlds of over 450 million Spanish-speakers in 23 modern countries.

Summary of Expectations:

Students in Spanish 1 should expect to study vocabulary daily on their own to prepare for a weekly quiz. They should attend and participate in every class in order to form an intuitive sense of the language and to learn correct grammar. They should be able to keep up with assignments and due dates via the online learning platform Schoology; these assignments will include short grammar reviews and dialogues.

Schedule for Spanish 1:

Classes will take place on Mondays & Wednesdays (section 1) or Tuesdays & Thursdays (section 2) from 2:00-3:15PM (EST) for 32 weeks.

First day of class: Tuesday, September 6/Wednesday, September 7, 2022.

[Thanksgiving Break – Nov. 21-25]

[Christmas Break – Dec. 19 – Jan. 6]

[Winter Break – Feb. 20-24]

[Holy Week – April 3-7]

Last day of class: Wednesday, May 24/Thursday, May 25, 2023.

Please note the above dates and times are the anticipated class sessions for this course. However, all dates are subject to change as the instructor's circumstances might dictate.*

You may also like to have a small notebook to create a vocabulary reference.

Student Expectations: Executive Function Skills

Students enrolling in Scholé Academy's Spanish 1 course will be expected to show development of Executive Function Skills throughout the year. Executive Function Skills speak to a set of qualities and skill sets students can develop and hone to better approach the courses, lectures, readings, and teachers they will face in their future academic coursework.

- 1. An Engaged Student: One who is willing to step into the arena of class discussion, asks questions, and supply answers. During class, students should be actively engaged as the teacher employs various interactive methods such as class repetition and recitation. Participation in these activities is central to class time and promotes a lively, delightful environment. Students should be active listeners during class time. They should be thoughtfully engaged with both each other and the teacher. All children should be viewing the class via Zoom on their computers and should not be browsing the internet. Students should approach class time as an opportunity to grow in fellowship as the class journeys together to obtain knowledge.
- 2. Attention to Detail & Preparedness: One who is consistently prepared with all assignments complete at the start of every class session, has submission requirements fulfilled before each session, has confirmed technology is working prior to the start of class, is responsible to determine how to proceed after an absence, is responsible for consulting the course syllabus and adjusting as the class proceeds, etc. This student should also come mentally prepared – ready to focus on the material being presented. He should arrive to the Zoom meeting on time and if late should respectfully listen to try to understand where the class is in relation to the text and should wait patiently for the teacher and classmates to finish their current task, which is when the teacher will catch the student up. Students should try to develop the virtue of constancy by remaining focused and diligent and pushing away even “good” distractions that would inhibit learning and mastery.

3. Self-Monitoring: Students should continually develop self-monitoring skills. One who successfully self-monitors can evaluate his own performance. This student is able to see both his own strengths and weaknesses. A self-monitoring student is one who determines which problems he can work through on his own and where he needs peer, teacher, or parent support. Students should follow behavior guidelines appropriate to the age and study of this course. They should practice hand-raising, speaking when called upon, listening to others, and focusing solely on the task at hand.
4. Exhibit Responsibility: One who is able to recognize when it is time to begin working and is able to do so without procrastination. This student is able to initiate tasks easily adjusting from the whole-class Zoom to a breakout room while still maintaining a scholarly attitude. During class time, students shall uphold the integrity of the period by showing technological responsibility. They will refrain from playing computer games, viewing alternate screens, or otherwise engaging in distracting activities.
5. Problem Solving: One who is ready and willing to press through, even when he is unable to successfully solve the problem on the first try. Mastering Spanish involves perseverance and looking at each word individually and in context to decode word use, sentence structure, and accurately translate word meaning.
6. Employ Critiques: one who receives feedback to submissions and is sure to apply that feedback to future assignments rather than repeating mistakes. This student also gleans information from the live class critiques of fellow students and notes mistakes to avoid by learning others. Students should have an attitude of humility when receiving critiques. They should view class as an opportunity to grow and to develop their God-given talents. Students should be happy for the successes of their peers, even if the gifts and capacities of their classmates surpass their own.

Student Expectations In Action

The long-term, ultimate goal for the student will be to master the Spanish language through imitation, so that they can engage with the Spanish-speaking world. To achieve this goal, students at the lower-school level begin to develop the virtues of love, both of learning and of the Spanish language, humility, as they humbly accept instruction, recognize their own strengths and weaknesses, and rejoice when others succeed, patience, with themselves and fellow classmates, constancy, through remaining focused and diligent in the face of distraction, and perseverance, or being willing to do what must be done in order to achieve mastery. The Spanish 1 student will be expected to:

- Be respectful of others during class time. This involves speaking when called upon, listening attentively, participating actively in the class discussion and practices, and focusing on the discussion. Conversely, it does not include speaking out of turn, distracting others, or bringing unrelated material to the conversation.
- Strive for mastery of each concept. The activities and practices serve to promote understanding and enjoyment of the study of Spanish. Students should apply their best effort in all work involved with the class. Should students encounter difficulty with their work, they should endeavor to understand and strive to complete the work, however inaccurately it may be. Putting forth effort exemplifies integrity in learning and fosters solid study habits as well as a mind inclined towards perseverance.
- Arrive to class on time and with all assigned material completed. The instructor will facilitate learning for the student, but the responsibility for staying up-to-date with classwork and assignments ultimately falls to the student. If the student is gone for more than half the class, it will count as an absence.

- Examine models for imitation, chanting and singing forms and studying vocabulary daily. Each week the teacher will model fluent recitation, accurate pronunciation, and provide practice designed to help the students grow as competent Spanish speakers.
- Complete and upload all assignments by the due date into the appropriate Schoology assignment folder.

Student Evaluation: Grading

While pursuing Spanish 1 through Scholé Academy will be “restful”, we also recognize the need to provide grades for students who will be using this course as part of their prepared college transcript. It’s a delicate balance to achieve both restful learning and excellent academic performance. Earning a specific grade should not overshadow achievement goals for mastery of this discipline, but I can assign the following grades to your student’s level of achievement: magna cum laude (with great praise); cum laude (with praise); satis (sufficient, satisfactory) and non satis (not sufficient).

Ideally, every average student working diligently should do praiseworthy work (cum laude). Those who excel beyond this expectation will be the magna cum laude students. Students who do adequate but not praiseworthy work be designated satis. Non satis means lacking sufficiency or adequacy.

Inasmuch as you might be fully on board with this grading method in theory, there will undoubtedly be the need to complete a college transcript with either a numeric or traditional letter grade. Traditional percentage grades will be provided at the mid-year update, on the year-end mastery report, and upon request.

Student Evaluation: Mastery Portrait

Students who pay careful attention in class and make a practice of chanting forms and studying vocabulary on a regular basis, and complete practice exercises will achieve mastery of materials.

- At the completion of this course cum laude students will be able to translate 450 vocabulary words Spanish-to-English and English-to-Spanish. They will be able to demonstrate their mastery of the vocabulary on written quizzes and in oral examination.
- Additionally, they will have attained the skills necessary to render verbs forms in the present, past and future tenses, and to correctly use prepositions, articles, and pronouns.
- Finally, Students completing Spanish 1 should increase their appreciation of the scope of language and of the power of repetition and memorization in pursuing the goal of fluency.

Satis: “sufficient”; the student is completing homework, attending class, understanding things with a few gaps, perhaps a forgotten homework assignment here and there.

Non Satis: “not sufficient”; the student has significant gaps, homework is not turned in, missing class often, failing to participate in class.

Magna Cum Laude: “with great praise”; the student goes above and beyond what is expected, consistently exhibiting mastery of material, demonstrating love, humility, patience, constancy, and perseverance in work and interactions with others. This mark is rarely achieved.

Student Evaluation: Assignments, Types & Weights

I will communicate with students regarding assignment feedback and grading through the free online grading system, Schoology.

Student Evaluation: Academic Dishonesty

Students will often take assessment tests and/or quizzes privately at home. Students are on their honor to abide by Scholé Academy's Learning Philosophy which assumes the personal cultivation of Student-Virtues described in the Student-Parent Handbook.

The Virtual Classroom:

We will be using the free online “virtual classroom” software provided by Zoom, one of the leading companies that provides such software. The virtual classroom will provide students with interactive audio, text chat and an interactive whiteboard in which texts, diagrams, video and other media can be displayed and analyzed. We will provide students with a link (via email) that will enable students to join the virtual classroom.

Specific information regarding the technology used by Scholé Academy (including required technology) can be found by visiting the Technology in the Classroom section of the Student Parent Handbook.

About the Instructor:

Annic Hoffman holds a BA in Anthropology from Penn State University. As a young adult, curiosity and a desire to find her neighbor in the wider world led her to spend one summer abroad in Mexico City and another with missionary friends of the family in Paraguay. Following university, she spent a year teaching English at a Christian school in the Dominican Republic, where her Spanish blossomed. After further adventures as an au pair in England and English teacher in Prague, Annice made her way back to Pennsylvania, where she met her future husband. When their first child came, she transitioned from teacher to stay-at-home-mom and, eventually, to homeschool mom. A chance event introduced Annice to the work of Classical Academic Press--and the meaning of Home

Education began to clarify; as Classical educators, we were not essentially fleeing from mainstream culture (her move to home schooling had first come as an instinct to protect), but rather racing toward Goodness, Truth, and Beauty.

Annice lives in Erie, Pennsylvania with her husband and three children. Her hobbies are reading, walking, learning languages, and watching her kids grow.
