

Scholé Academy's the scholé chronicle

Welcomes you to a new year! We are excited to announce that we are open for submissions for the autumnal edition of the Chronicle!

- Our feature theme for this autumn is from Louisa May Alcott's Marjorie's Three Gifts, "It is amazing how lovely common things become, if one only knows how to look at them."
 - Our other columns include recipes, arts & entertainment and a new one: a Commonplace column!
 - To find out more about our columns, please read through the requirements doc, on this pdf!

The deadline for submissions is Friday, November 1st, 2024

Scholé Chronicle Issue 16 Requirements

Please email Madeleine Berns at submissions.scholechronicle@gmail.com with all questions and submissions.

General Notes:

- All submissions are due by November 1, 2024
- Our Projected Publishing Date is December 6, 2024
- Unfortunately, we are not always able to publish every submission.

Issue 16 Themes:

Please keep submissions relevant.

1. Our Thematic Column this issue is focused on a quote from Louisa May Alcott's short story, Marjorie's Three Gifts. "It is amazing how lovely common things become, if one only knows how to look at them." Reflect on the ordinary things and send us short stories, poetry, artwork, or anything that showcases the truth, goodness, and beauty of everyday life.
2. Our Seasonal Column features pieces including artwork, photography, poetry, and short stories about fall and winter!
3. Other featured columns include the Spiritual Column, Arts and Entertainment, Recipes (please keep within the Season!), and Commonplace Quotes.
