

ANGELS IN ART

Colorful wings and fanciful feathers, protective comfort, or ominous presence -- Throughout the ages, angels have captivated artists.

Students in grades 7-12 are invited to be equally captivated as we delight in and examine representations of angels in liturgical art.

Students will also hone their own artistic skill, as we practice imitating the watercolors of Viktor Vasnetsov.

2:30 - 4:30 pm EST

- Aug 5: Ranks of Angels and Understanding Wing Structure
- Aug 6: Archangels
- Aug 7: Seraphim
- Aug 8: A Survey of Angels in the Bible and Project Beginning
- Aug 9: Completing and Sharing Projects

ABOUT THE INSTRUCTOR

HANNAH GRAVES TEACHES LATIN, ART, AND RELIGION COURSES AT SCHOLÉ ACADEMY. SHE HAS AN MA IN SCRIPTURAL THEOLOGY AND IS WORKING ON AN MA IN LITURGICAL STUDIES. SHE IS FASCINATED BY THE INTERPLAY OF ART AND FAITH – HOW THEY BOTH BUILD UPON ONE ANOTHER TO REACH GREATER HEIGHTS. IN HER SPARE TIME, SHE ENJOYS A WIDE VARIETY OF HAND CRAFTS INCLUDING DRAWING, PAINTING, CARVING, AND WEAVING.

Materials Needed:

Pencil and eraser
Water color paper
Water color paints
Round brushes in various sizes (#4 and #8 recommended, other sizes may be helpful)