The Great Adventure Timeline (Ascension Press, Jeff Cavins, Fr. Mike Schmitz) has had great success in helping Catholics approach the Bible and dive into daily Scripture reading, study and prayer while still being rooted in the Church’s teachings. Keeping that success in mind, this course will be using the Great Adventure Timeline to help students to see Scripture as the Living Word of God, a pillar of the Catholic Church, and the powerful story of Salvation History.

This summer course will be a quick “helicopter tour” of the Great Adventure Timeline and give students a framework and foundation to understand the Bible. The hope is that this course would serve as a gateway to more Scripture reading and study in the student’s lives.

A typical class will include:

- Lectio Divina / Journal (Wisdom Books)
- Memory work
- Bible Question: Brief lecture / Q and A
- 5 minute break (snacks/stretch/etc)
- View Sacred Art
- Time Period: Take notes / draw

About the Instructor

Tisha Frost has been teaching in a variety of settings over the last 20 years after following one of the best pieces of advice she was ever given, "Be who God created you to be and you will set the world on fire" (attributed to St. Catherine of Siena). This inspired her to study both history and theology during her undergraduate years. She obtained a B.A. in American Studies, with a minor in Theology from the University of Notre Dame. She also holds a Master of Education from the University of Notre Dame, specializing in Middle School and High School Social Studies. Through her experiences of teaching many students, including her own children, she has seen the need for restful education that is focused on the true, good, and beautiful. Tisha resides in Northern Minnesota with her husband and seven children. When she has a moment to herself, she enjoys children's literature, British mysteries, good movies, and baking.
