

Monday Evenings, 6/10-8/12, 7 PM

The Man Who Was Thursday

by G.K. Chesterton

Students entering grades 9-12
in the fall are eligible to enroll

Come join us as we read and discuss Chesterton's madcap spy novel, one of his most raucous, enjoyable reads. But underneath the hilarity is an incisive analysis of the spiritual forces that have shaped the modern world, and the hunger for God obscurely bound up in all of them. Together, we will read Chesterton's tale and reflect on the light it sheds on our own day and age.

Course Materials

Any edition of The Man Who Was Thursday will suffice. The instructor will be working out of the Penguin Classics edition.

About Your Instructor

Mark A. Signorelli is a classical educator with over twenty years of experience. He has served as an administrator, teacher, and educational consultant. In addition to his experience as an educator, he is a published author whose work has appeared in numerous publications.

