New to Narnia: Enter the Wardrobe!

CLASS TIMES

Week of July 9 –
Week of July 30

T/Th 12:30-1:45 ET

“Safe?” said Mr. Beaver.
“Who said anything about safe? ...Course he isn’t safe. But he’s good.
He’s the King, I tell you.”
— C.S. Lewis

If you have never entered the world of Narnia, or if you would simply love to venture there again, I invite you to enter the wardrobe with us this summer! I firmly believe that The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe will change students’ lives and, in the meantime, teach them how to read with delight, depth, and skill.

Students will be provided with a background on C.S. Lewis and the historical context of the book. Students may choose to keep a journal or binder for sections such as vocabulary, questions, musings, maps, and character sketches. However, there are no required assignments! All that is asked is that you come and participate with delight and joy in reading and discussion in community.

The Chronicles—and The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe, in particular—are written with many Christian themes. We will explore how the book relates to the Christian gospel and to our own lives. It is my hope that students will grow in their love of reading, their fascination with Narnia, and in their relationship with God as a result of our study together.

“Wrong will be right,
when Aslan comes in sight.
At the sound of his roar,
sorrows will be no more.
When he bares his teeth, winter meets its death.
And when he shakes his mane, we shall have spring again.”

— C.S. Lewis, The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe

About the Instructor: Peter Belfry has a range of teaching and tutoring experience, from kindergarten through to adult education at the college level and has taught at several classical, Christian and public schools. Peter holds an Honors BA from Trent University in History as well as a BA in Education, specializing in History and Computer Science. He holds an MA from Knox Theological Seminary in Classical and Christian studies, which provides him a background for teaching from a classical perspective.

In addition to teaching, Peter enjoys volunteering to serve in his local church and community. He believes in Scholé’s approach in seeking “restful learning” and believes that education should be life-giving and freeing for the soul. Peter lives in the North Bay, Ontario area with his wife, twin boys and baby girl.

Peter provides tutoring services with Scholé Academy and teaches the following classes: Formal Logic: The Discovery of Deduction, Informal Logic: The Art of Argument, The Logic of Computer Programming, and The Art of Computer Programming
