

THE WINGFEATHER SAGA BOOK CLUB

Andrew Peterson's Wingfeather Saga is an epic adventure set in the fantastical world of Aerwiar. It's a beloved tale of lost Jewels, legendary heroes, and persistent hope, along with repulsive Fangs and Toothy Cows! Whether students are new arrivals to the Wingfeather Saga or have long relished these stories, this will be an opportunity to take a deep dive into the delightfully quirky first book in the series, On the Edge of the Dark Sea of Darkness.

Regardless of how many times students have enjoyed this exciting tale, I will ask them to read several chapters in preparation for each meeting, with the goal of reading through the entire book over the course of our club. We will avoid spoilers for those for whom this is the first time through, but my hope is that students would have their interest piqued and will hurry to the next books in the series!

Students will be invited to dress as one of the characters and perform dramatic readings as well as embark on some fun artistic endeavors. We will design a map and some of our own unusual animals on par with Pembrick's Creaturepedia, put ourselves into the story through some creative writing, and explore what makes this such a riveting story!

Schedule:

Wednesdays 2:30-4:00 EST

June 12, 19, & 26

July 3, 10, 17, 24, & 31

Eligible Students:

Rising 4th thru 8th graders

Instructor:

Catherine "Cat" Wise has loved to read since before she started school. She has been classically homeschooling her own three children for nine years. She loves talking about books and reading with anyone who will listen, but also enjoys working jigsaw puzzles and baking yummy desserts, and is currently trying to visit as many National Parks as she can, attend live theater performances at every opportunity, and teach herself to crochet. She loves teaching literature and grammar for Scholé!
